Subject: NEDA/CAP Meeting on Friday March 15th at 10:30 am - People who are coming in Person! And potential topics of discussion.

Hi Patrick –

We are looking forward to seeing you on Friday at 10:30 am. You had requested the names of people who will attend in person, which are provided directly below. I also listed those who have told me that they will participate by phone using NEDA/CAP's conferencing number unless you prefer an EPA number). Some possible meeting discussion items are listed at the very bottom.

The following NEDA/CAP members are planning to attend in person:

- Barbara Bankoff, for Eli Lilly
- Al Collins, Occidental Petroleum
- Rob Kaufmann Koch Public Sectors,
- Steve Lomax, Koch Public Sectors
- Meagan Ekstrom, Proctor & Gamble
- David Pavlich, Phillips 66
- Steve Higley, Marathon Petroleum
- Leslie Ritts, NEDA/CAP

(Unless you prefer to use an agency call-in number, let's go ahead and use NEDA/CAP's number, which is 916-233-0790, 916390# for participants and 312168# to open the line). I expect the following folks to participate by phone:

- Matt Iwicki, Boeing
- Ryan Gesser, Georgia Pacific
- Jennifer Cogswell, Koch Ag & Energy
- Anu Kunapuli, Merck
- Don Robin, Eli Lilly (tent.)
- Joe McCabe, Caterpillar
- Ken Comey and/or Mike Hopperton, BP America
- Greg Myers, Marathon Petroleum

Issues I thought that we might talk about, if acceptable to you, would include (1) status of the reorganization of the regional offices enforcement groups and whether there are any effects on procedures for referrals and complaints or outreach to states; (2) whether your priorities have changed since last summer when we last met and what it means that NSR has been removed from the national priority list; (3) the new national OECA priority for ammonia refrigerants, any updates to the RMP inspection manual, and OECA's use of the "general duty clause;" (4) whether OECA has any concerns over withdrawal of the "once in, always policy" by OAR; (5) any updates on last summer's concerns regarding tank emission factors; (6) the use of optical imaging and personal sensors and credible evidence issues; and (7) other NSR clarifications if we have time.

Best regards and many thanks for meeting with us,

Leslie:

Let's meet at 10:30 a.m. on Friday, March 15. Please give me a final list of in-person participants as we get closer so we can pre-clear them through security. We'll be meeting in the South building.

Warm regards,
Patrick

Wow, that was quick! And apologies, yes – you absolutely need a heads up about the companies that would attend:

BP America – James Nolan (DC), Ken Comey, PE (IL)
Boeing – Pete Pagano (With Matt Iwicki, Esq. on phone from Seattle)
Caterpillar – Either Kathleen Horchler, Esq. (IL) or Brad Stevenson, PE, (IL)
Eli Lilly – Possibly Don Robin, (IN/old IDEM alum) or Michael Chambers, Assoc. GC (IN)
Georgia Pacific – Ryan Gesser (GA)
Koch Industries – Likely both Rob Kaufmann and Steve Lomax (DC)
Merck – Anu Kunapuli, PE (phone from NJ)
Phillips 66 – Dave Pavlich, PE (OK)
Occidental Petroleum – Al Collins (DC)
Procter & Gamble – Maxine Dewbury (OH), maybe Sean Broderick (DC)
Solar Turbines – Leslie Witherspoon (CA)

Leslie, good to hear from you. Let me run this around the office. In the meantime, would you let me know which NEDA/CAP members might attend?

Dear Patrick,

NEDA/CAP's members would like to come and meet with you about the reorganization of the enforcement function in the regions, enforcement priorities, and your priorities in 2019. Our next DC meeting (actually we were debating OAQPS, but hands down, you won if you are available) is on March 15th? Might you be willing to meet with us for about an hour?

Hope you are enjoying a snow day! And many thanks,
